

Scott Barrett, M.D., Chief Clinical Officer

Dr. Scott Barrett has more than three decades of experience as a dual board-certified medical oncologist and internal medicine specialist, prolific clinical researcher and industry executive. Prior to joining ViridBio, Dr. Barrett served as the foundational chief medical officer or Immuneering Corporation. Prior to joining Immuneering, Dr. Barrett was the global medical affairs lead for Targeted Therapeutics at Incyte Pharmaceuticals, where he oversaw the strategic development of the company's pipeline of targeted anti-cancer agents across both early and registrational-stage clinical trials. Before Incyte, Dr. Barrett served roles of increasing clinical responsibilities at Infinity Pharmaceuticals Inc., Eisai Pharmaceuticals Inc., and Janssen Division of Johnson & Johnson Inc. Prior to his industry experience, Dr. Barrett spent 15 years treating patients as a senior partner of academic group practices affiliated with Beth Israel Hospital in New York, N.Y., Crouse Memorial Hospital in Syracuse, N.Y. and James P. Wilmot Cancer Center of Strong Memorial Hospital in Rochester, N.Y. Dr. Barrett earned his Bachelor of Arts in natural sciences as a Beneficial Hodson scholar from Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, MD. Following his bachelor's degree, he earned his medical degree from the University of Miami School of Medicine. Dr. Barrett then completed his residency in internal medicine at the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, MN. Dr. Barrett completed his fellowship in medical oncology from Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center in New York, N.Y.